

"RED, WHITE AND YOU" PATRIOTIC CELEBRATION
COMES TO CLEMENT PARK

Foothills Park and Recreation District and the Foothills Foundation are proud to present the inaugural "Red, White and You" celebration at Clement Park on Saturday, July 2 at 6pm. This free, patriotic event will feature a concert by "Hot Flash Rock and Roll" and fireworks display at dusk. Clement Park is located at 7306 W. Bowles in Littleton.

There will be fun activities for the whole family. For the youngsters, there will be bounce houses and several coloring stations to create a massive mural. There will also be a bounce house geared towards older kids and adults. Event-goers are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets for seating. Tasty concessions by Robert's Italian Deli, ice cream by Cold Stone Creamery and beverages will be available for purchase. The Foothills Foundation is sponsoring a beer garden. Parking is free for this event.

"Red, White and You" is part of Foothills' Free Summer Entertainment Series. The series is made possible with the support of: The Scientific and Cultural Arts Facilities District, Ken Caryl Vision Center, Maverick Press, Colorado Business Bank and Cold Stone Creamery. Additional information on "Red, White and You" and the Summer Entertainment Series is available by calling Foothills' Special Events Hotline at 303-409-2626 or visiting www.foothills.org.
